

Tom Webb, senior vice president and general manager for Skanska USA's New York region, and Maryanne Gilmartin, CEO for Forest City Ratner Companies (FCRC), recently spoke at the Urban Land Institute's (ULI) event, Construction and Methodologies: Implications in Economics and Productivity. Together, Skanska and FCRC created FC + Skanska Modular, LLC (FCS Modular), and are building modular components in a 100,000 s/f space located in the Brooklyn Navy Yard, which will be shipped and assembled to the Atlantic Yards development site.
